Living safely with wildlife

North Vancouver is home to a variety of wild animals, including skunks, raccoons, coyotes, cougars, and bears.

Whether they're searching for food, or looking for a warm place to call home, there are steps you can take to make your property less inviting to them.

Guidelines for setting out your containers

- Place your carts and containers at the curb between 5:30am and 7:30am on your collection day
- Set them side by side in a straight line, making sure your recycling is set apart from the carts
- Place your yellow bag beside, not inside, the blue box or grey box
- Unlock the metal clips from your carts and attach them to the lid handles before collection

LYNN MICHELS 2nd Year Carpenter Apprentice

Lynn Michels, a 32-year-old carpenter apprentice who loves going to work each and every day. While in high school Lynn really enjoyed her woodwork class and mentions that building and working with her hands gave her such a thrill. In 2014 Lynn took an introductory carpentry course which provided her with the basic knowledge on tools and materials. In 2017 she enrolled herself into a Level 1 carpentry program at one of the best trades school, BCIT. After graduation, Lynn went full force into the trade industry. Looking back at day one, Lynn says has learnt a lot and very is eager to learn more each day she works towards her Red seal. Lynn is very proud to be working in a growing industry where women are picking up tools and engaging in their dreams. She came across BA Blacktop through a newsletter that was handed out in her community. Lynn mentioned how she did some research and recognized the good relationships BA Blacktop has built with many of the Indigenous communities. Being an Indigenous woman, Lynn appreciates the relationships that are built and wanted to be a part of BA Blacktop.

A career at BA Blacktop means the opportunity to transform our transportation network here in the Lower Mainland and create effective solutions for our communities.
